Since we think of long-term cooperation with our customers, our contact with them is not finished by closing the sale. We would like to know their ideas about their purchase, area market, etc. It is worth mentioning that this web site also displays digital images of samples of different kinds of rugs.

Please email or call us with any questions you might have. We will return all messages within 48 hours. Our 7-day-a-week online client service is ready to give quick response and assistance.
